APPROVAL OF MINUTES:

Mr. Chapman asked for a motion to approve the minutes from the regular scheduled meeting from the 2 October 2018 meeting. Mr. Blasingame made the motion to approve. Mr. Braswell seconded. Motion carried 4-0.

PUBLIC HEARING:

Mr. Horace Smith appeared before the board requesting a beer, wine and liquor license. Several questions about the location were asked and answered. Mr. Braswell made a motion to approve. Seconded by Mr. Thomas. Motion carried 4-0.

APPEARANCES:

Mr. Respress appeared before the board requesting the BOC scrape and maintain Dewberry Lane which is a private drive. Mr. Respress stated the board had scraped it in the past and should continue to scrape it. BOC informed him that it was a private drive and therefore could not maintain it with county assets. Mr. Respress stated that he would provide the county attorney with legal authority and/or citations to support his claims that the road became public by any prior scrapings by the county. Mr. Blasingame asked him to get the right of way for at least 60 feet and the BOC would consider adopting the road as public and maintaining it.
